

HB 1804 - DIGEST

Requires that, approximately ninety days before the license expiration date, the department of licensing shall mail a renewal notice to the licensee at the address listed on the concealed pistol license application or, if the licensee has notified the department of a change of address, to the licensee's new address. The notice shall show the due date, the amount of renewal fee, the penalty fee for late renewal, and other mailing instructions.